3.7 Freedom of Information Revised 10/2018
3.7.1 Applicability Revised 10/2018
3.7.2 Policy Revised 10/2018

3.7 Freedom of Information Revised 10/2018

3.7.1 Applicability Revised 10/2018

Freedom of information is applicable to all FAA procurements including agreements, real property, utilities, credit cards, commercial and simplified purchase method.

3.7.2 Policy Revised 10/2018

The FAA will comply with the Freedom of Information Act which requires that the FAA provide information to the public by (i) publication in the Federal Register; (ii) providing an opportunity to read and copy records; or (iii) upon a reasonable request. Certain information may be exempted from disclosure; such as, classified information, trade secrets, and confidential commercial or financial information, interagency or intra-agency memoranda, or to personal and medical information pertaining to an individual.