Summary of Change: This change updates the Hazardous Waste Disposal Guidance document.

Reason for Change: The current document was developed in 1999 and many new hazmat regulations and orders have been developed. The updated document references the current orders and regulations and provides updated and more detailed hazmat disposal guidance.

Development, Review, and Concurrence: The change was developed and reviewed by ATO-W, EOSH Services, AJW-23 and AJA-A1.

Target Audience: Service Teams with programs that require disposal of legacy equipment or system components as part of a tech refresh.

Potential Links in FAST for the Change: Change the name of current link; Hazardous Waste Disposal Plan to Hazardous Waste Disposal Guidance.

Attachments: See attached red-line and final version.

Briefing Planned: Changes to document to be briefed to the AEB.

ASAG Responsibilities: Review and comment
