Summary of Change: The FAA SEM received updates from v1.0.1 including formatting, 508 compliance, and changes to comply with current FAA policies and procedures.

Reason for Change: To ensure consistency with current FAA standards, guidelines, policy, comply with mandatory 508 compliance for documents, and fix formatting and other outdated content

Development, Review, and Concurrence: The FAA SEM update was led by a team in ANG-B, along with numerous SMEs. The review process included 300+ FAA employees (NAS and non-NAS). Approximately 200 comments were received and all comments have been mitigated or deferred to be agreed upon for the next update. The FAA SEM has been presented to the TRB and ARB for concurrence in September 2015.

Target Audience: Any FAA employee that needs guidance on systems engineering.

Briefing Planned: Yes.

ASAG Responsibilities: Review and comment.
